Law, of Savannah, lectures for the benefit of the Good Templars of Augusta to-night. Six hundred and twenty-five persons had registered in Augusta up to 4 o'clock on Monday.—Constitutionalist.

Within the past week it has been noticeable in all quarters that the negro element around Savannah has suddenly become defiant and regardless of all law and order, not only making threats but carrying out their devilish purposes of murder and attempts thereat. This state of things may be traced to the miserable white creatures, who have been instilling all manner of vague ideas and schemes into their heads, with a view of bringing about a similar state of affairs as now exist in portions of down trodden South Carolina.—Savannah Advertiser.

The Fair will be a grand success. The exhibition of agricultural implements and machinery is large and exceedingly interesting. There is a great variety of plows, reapers, etc. In horse flesh the stock is numerous. A very large attendance present. Floral Hall, at the Fair Grounds, is beautiful. The Second United States Infantry Band at the Fair Grounds is excellent. On Monday night the Worrell Sisters played "The Head of the People" and "Black Eyed Se-u-san" at Ralston Hall. Mr. Woodson, night clerk at the Lanier House, had his watch stolen Monday night by a thief, who entered his room. The Skating Rink in Macon is well attended. Telegraph and Messenger.

Brown, the esteemed inventor, was working at his lathe in Goetchius' Steam Plaining Mill, on Monday, when he was suddenly stricken with an apoplectic fit. He is a brother to the proprietor of Brown House, Macon. The Columbus fire bell has been received. It weighs 2,175 pounds and cost about $1,000.—Columbus Sun.

Dr. E. F. Evans, who lives six miles from Monroe, says that from actual tests made by him gold, iron and copper doubtless exists in his section of the county in boundless quantities. Upon the petition of several parties, considered by Judge Green in Chambers, an order has been issued restraining for the present Moses Potts, Ordinary of Monroe; Stephen Potts, Treasurer, and Mr. Swan, Tax Collector, from paying any of the outstanding county scrip in the hands of W. L. Lampkin, B. Pye & Son, and W. McCommon; and also prohibiting the Ordinary from paying any further sum of money as bonus to secure protection for the notes of the county. The same order also prevents Messrs. Pye, Lampkin and McCommon from taking any steps to enforce collection. The order was granted on the 18th. On Tuesday night last the store of Mr. Russell, at Grab-all, Jones county, was plundered and the building, with the remaining contents, fired and burned. The goods stolen were found in the possession of a couple of negroes the next day, one of whom was shot and killed for resisting an effort to arrest. The other made his escape. The receipts of the Butts County Fair were sufficient to pay premiums and expenses in full. Mrs. Mabry, an aged lady of Monroe, died on Tuesday last. The citizens of Forsyth have cast their vote in favor of the subscription for the purpose of aiding Hilliard Male Institute and Monroe Female College. The subscription thus carried will be $15,000. The Presbyterian congregation of Forsyth have purchased the old Methodist Church property in that town.—Monroe Advertiser.

☞ Col. Wm. H. Hulsey, of Atlanta, was in our city Saturday looking after his property interest here. We had with him a very pleasant interview about the Fulton County Fair, etc. He told us of many amusing things that took place, and finally pronounced it an elegant success. When he had finished, we said to him something about having heard that he was a candidate for Mayor of Atlanta; and asked why he had not announced himself. He replied that he would do that in time; that the home stretch was the point at last.—Griffin Star.

☞ Ever skeptical of partisan charges the Republicans must indorse the opinions of men like Judge Bond and Judge Brooks, of the United States Circuit and District Court. We regret that it is necessary to promulgate the doctrine of entire abolition of "State Rights," but we must confess that if the leading men of the late Confederacy persist in their opposition to the government, thereby threatening the life of the nation, then but one course is open to the lovers of true Democracy and self-government. The "reconstructed States" must be reconstructed over again, and the "Confederacy" be placed under national law and under men who will carry out the intentions of Congress in spirit as well as letter, thus making a "treason a crime" and assisting in building up Southern society on the basis of liberty and not class rule. Washington Republican.

THE RISE IN COFFEE.—The recent extraordinary rise in the price of coffee has produced much discussion in commercial circles. The price of good Rio in cargo, for instance, has, within a few weeks, advanced from 11½ cents to nearly 17 cents per pound, gold. Other descriptions of coffee have risen nearly as much. It is stated that there are at present but forty-odd thousand bags of coffee in first hands in the United States, and some of the large dealers are ordering cargoes from Europe. When the tariff was reduced on coffee, tea, and sugar, a year ago, there was an almost immediate decline in the price of those articles; but the short crop of coffee has influenced the present rise in that "necessity."

GOVERNOR SCOTT, OF SOUTH CAROLINA, ON MARTIAL LAW.—A correspondent of the New York Herald gives that paper an interview with Governor Scott, of South Carolina, upon the President's late proclamation of martial law in certain counties in that State. The Governor says that in his judgment the proclamation was unnecessary. By a clerical error (as he supposes) one of the most tranquil counties in the State is included in the proclamation, while another which has been the seat of some disturbance is omitted. The Governor thinks that the military proceedings may work inconvenience to some innocent men. He concedes that the counties in question have been more orderly in the past three months than for a long time before.

BRIGHAM AND BIGAMY.—About a month ago Brigham Young gave out that he would not be arrested, and that no Gentile touch should profane the Lord's anointed. He has, however, been indicted and arraigned, all the same. He quietly permitted the profanation, pleaded not guilty, and asked a continuance of the trial proceedings. Precisely as if he was only human, and not a prophet, the court proceeds as usual, and gives Brigham only the grace it allows others. The Mormons have started a subscription paper for their President, to aid the poor man on his trial. The money flows in freely. Let Brigham be encouraged. Even if convicted, the precedent of Bowen shows that bigamy is not an unpardonable crime.—News.

☞ General Wimpffen, who cammanded at Sedan, says of Bismarck: "This unequaled diplomat expresses himself with great facility and elegance, even in a foreign language. Every word he says seems to be carefully selected, as the best for attaining the object with the least difficulty. I have seen him twice under very critical circumstances, and on both occasions he gave me the impression of being the most astute and dangerous man I ever met. Though as inflexible as Moltke himself, he can suit his manner and tone to the occasion; by seeming first conciliatory, and then unyielding, he drives his adversary from hope to despair, and thus ascertains exactly what is the utmost he can hope to obtain from him."

THE NEXT PACKET FOR LIBERIA.—The American Colonization Society expect to dispatch an expedition to Liberia on the 1st of November, 1871. To industrious and worthy people of color the Society will give passage and subsistence on the voyage—made in about forty days—and support for the first six months after landing. Single adult persons get ten acres, and families twenty-five acres of land. These are all gifts, never to be repaid. Those wishing to remove to Liberia should make application, addressed to Rev. William McLain, D.D., Financial Secretary, or to William Coppinger, Corresponding Secretary of the American Colonization Society, Washington, D. C.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S HEALTH.—A well-informed London correspondent writes to the New York Times, under date of the 7th inst: "The bulletins concerning Queen Victoria's health are vague and unsatisfactory. They carefully conceal the truth. Her condition continually becomes more and more alarming. Her death at any moment would not surprise those who know best what her real condition is."

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 25.—Dauntless beat Lavonia, yesterday, eleven minutes and three seconds. It was a challenge race for a fifty guinea cup for forty miles.

PENNSYLAINA.

HARRISBURG, October 25.—The mountain forests above Dauphin are burning.

GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, October 25.—Accounts from Bluffton, South Carolina, states that Montmollin, Kent and Slicer were wounded and captured by the negroes on Montmollin's plantation, and are held as prisoners under a warrant issued by Robertson, a Justice of the Peace. They are to be taken to Beaufort for trial when sufficiently recovered from their wounds. It is believed that Slicer is mortally wounded.

They were captured by the negro Constable Middleton, a notorious bad character, the terror of the whites of the neighborhood. The prisoners are in a private house under medical treatment, there being no jail in Bluffton.

Robertson is a violent carpet-bagger and ex-preacher, from Connecticut.

Montmollin's offense was an attempt to recover his lands and collect his rents from negro tenants, who refused either to pay or leave the premises.

CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, October 25.—Bill Russell, another one of the escaped prisoners from Nevada, has been captured while endeavoring to ship for a foreign port.

George Q. Cannon, a Mormon leader, says if convictions continue, the Mormons will burn all they have and make another expedition as they did from Illinois.

At Los Angelos a fight has occurred in the Chinese quarter. An officer attempted to arrest a Chinaman for shooting another. He was resisted and called on Robert Thompson, a citizen, to assist him. The Chinese opened fire on both. Thompson fell and died immediately.

Officer Bilderson was shot but escaped on horseback. The mob soon collected and attacked the whole Chinese quarter. The attack was resisted in a spirited manner by the Chinese, when fifteen hundred armed men surrounded their quarters to prevent their escape. The mob hanged fifteen Chinamen and fired their houses, the fire, however, was extinguished.

At 9 P. M. order at Los Angelos was partly restored by the authorities. No more bloodshed has taken place. Several Chinamen have been arrested and lodged in jail.

At last accounts Trevino was investing Sattillo.

The revolutionists claim ten States.

The telegraph lines in Mexico are all cut.

FRANCE.

PARIS, October 25.—Prince Napoleon made a violent political speech at Ajaccio yesterday.

☞ An old army officer, who has spent much of his life in the West, represents that the climate in Dakato or Montana is more genial than even that of Kansas. There is not so much snow, the temperature is not so changeable, and the winters are not so long. Horses and cattle are allowed to run out all winter, and the grass that abounds "puts them in such condition by the spring that the horses are hard and fitted for any service, and the cattle are unsurpassed for killing." He considers the territories of Idaho and Montana, and thence westward, "absolutely the garden spot of America."—Commercial.

SENSIBLE CONCLUSIONS.—The Detroit Post argues that wooden cornices ought to be strictly prohibited in the business portions of cities, because they are especially dangerous. So ought roofs laid upon wood—especially roofs of which tar or tarred paper is a component part. And canvas awnings, unless the canvas has been subjected to some process rendering it fire-proof, ought to be prohibited. Cities that neglect these self-evident mechanical precautions always suffer the penalty for their folly sooner or later, in either repeated smaller conflagrations or one or two great ones.

SAN FRANCISCO BEST SOCIETY.—The San Francisco Chronicle cites it as a well-known fact that what is termed the best society in that city, at parties and balls given at private houses, there is a room set apart for gentlemen where brandy and champaigne flow in abundance, and where the visitors may engage in "monte" and "draw poker" for unlimited amounts of money. This reveals a rather bad state of things, nor is it certain, says the New York Evening Post, that these San Francisco revelers are without imitators in the latter city.

☞ General Naglee, at San Jose, will distill about 15,900 gallons of grape brandy this year. He has 25,000 gallons in store, which he will not put on the market till it is five years old.

☞ The colored Radicals in Pittsylvania have determined that "the wite trash" in their party shall no longer dictate candidates for them!—Lynchburg Republican.

☞ It is a matter of regret that the Moscow Gazette, an influential old Russian organ, strongly disapproves of the visit of the Grand Duke Alexis to this country.

☞ Eugenie was coldly received, it is said, on the occasion of her recent arrival in Madrid. The ex-leader of fashions was very plainly dressed. She wore a very simple black traveling suit, and no jewelry of any description.

☞ Seventeen wealthy Bonapartists have subscribed half a million francs for the new Imperialist organ in Paris, of which Clement Duvernois is editor.

A full report of the decisions of the Supreme Court is furnished to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively, by the Reporter of the Court.

Look After Them.

Our I. W. A. has been absent a few days at Dalton. W. A. H. is luxuriating at the Macon Fair—also, Acton. For this latter gentleman petite ladies have a great partiality. And they are all ladies' men, too. But we trust that the ladies and friends of THE CONSTITUTION will treat these wanderers well, and not allow them to get lost, but in due time send them back safely.

Acknowledgment.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION EXTRA has been laid on our table. It is a neat journal of sixteen pages, full of readable matter. Messrs. Hemphill & Co. evidently have faith in advertising, and thinking that about 10,000 copies of this little journal distributed at the Macon Fair would benefit THE CONSTITUTION, at once published it. Any one wishing it can have a copy at the business office for the asking.

General News.

The Monroe Advertiser is of the opinion that the general news department of a newspaper is its "chief attraction to the reader." There is much force in the statement. The mass of people wish to know what is passing in the world by a glance, and have no time to waste on long articles, or to wade through long editorials. For this reason, special attention is paid to this department of THE CONSTITUTION. Several hundred exchanges, from all parts of the United States, are daily searched, and items of general interest are first clipped and then condensed for the reading public. It is rare that a news item of any importance escapes THE CONSTITUTION's daily summary.

Fire Insurance.

Every kind and department of business has its crisis and days of excitement. Just now the business of fire insurance is disturbed and violently shocked, not only throughout the United States, but also to some extent in Europe. It is probable that the Chicago fire will necessitate in the end the failure and suspension of forty or fifty insurance companies. This will explain the active movement among the companies to array before the public their condition, for the general confidence having been shaken, it is necessary to show what companies are solvent. But there is still another reason, and that is, the opportunity presented to increase and extend business—a golden opportunity that may not occur again in a quarter of a century. We say "golden" opportunity, for, though it is death to the weak, to the strong companies it will prove in the end a rich harvest. This is an experience of the past. By an increase of business, a company may recover an enormous loss in a very few years. But to do this, it is necessary to show an alarmed people in what company it is safest to confide their interests; this done, those needing insurance will, of course, flock to it.

The Tennessee and Atlantic Canal.

The project of connecting the waters of the Tennessee river with the Atlantic ocean, by means of a canal from Guntersville on the Tennessee to Gadsden on the Coosa, and another from a point on the Etowah a short distance above Rome to the Ocmulgee about Macon, is just now attracting considerable attention in some parts of Georgia. Major Frobell is enlisting the interest of the people in the enterprise by addresses at various places in the upper part of the State. Congress, at its last session, made an appropriation for a survey of the route, which United States engineers are now making. The distance to be canalled is said to be about 150 miles, besides which there would have to be some money expended in improving the navigation of the Tennessee, Coosa, Etowah and Ocmulgee rivers.

We are apprehensive that this is an undertaking that will require more money than Congress, in its present temper, will be willing to appropriate for improvements at the South, and that the Southern people themselves are unable to accomplish it. But of its great importance and the vast benefits to commerce that would be secured by it, there can be no doubt.

The canal would no doubt cross the Chattahoochee river in the neighborhood of Atlanta. If the improvement of the Coosa river is practicable, so as to admit of steamboat navigation from Gadsden to Wetumpka, is not the improvement of the Chattahoochee so as to afford navigation above Columbus also practicable? And who can estimate the immense advantages and benefits to us of an unbroken inland water communication between this part of the country and the great cities on the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri rivers? The early promise of it is not a very assuring one, but the scheme is one of almost incalculable importance.—Columbus Enquirer.

Kimball.

In this morning's CONSTITUTION we gave all the information we could obtain of any reliable character touching the seizure of the Brunswick and Albany Road by the Governor, and the consequent reports about Mr. Kimball's failure. No other facts have transpired relative to the matter, though we have made the most thorough inquiry. If Kimball has failed, the cause of it, to a great extent, is to be attributed to his possession of State bonds, all of which have been depreciated by the fact that Governor Bullock has issued bonds in violation of law, as THE CONSTITUTION showed months ago. Their unauthorized amounts and legal defects were shown. There is no law in Georgia for lithographing the signatures to bonds or coupons; on the contrary, the law requires the autograph or genuine signature. In the case of coupons, it is expressly stated that they shall be signed by the State Treasurer, and if not thus signed shall not be paid unless presented with the bond to the Treasurer, and by him detached. Of course the prevalent supposition was, that the bonds were thus signed to conceal from Treasurer Angier the vast amount were being engraved and lithographed. Then another inference was natural, that these bonds were to be used for huge speculations. These exposures and suppositions at once depreciated the bonds of the State generally, making their negotiation difficult, if not impossible. Kimball, unable to negotiate, could not meet his engagements, and hence the seizure of the Brunswick and Albany real situation can be had. Nor can all the facts be brought out, until a Legislative committee, consisting of able men, invested with full power, investigates the matter. Then shall we know what has become of the bonds of the State, how many issued, what speculation there has been, and who are the parties. We therefore rejoice exceedingly that our Legislature will convene in but a few days; and we urge and shall continue to urge the immediate investigation of this State bond business.

The Nicholson Pavement.

This pavement (wooden) was tested by the Chicago fire. There is quite a dispute as to the effects of the fire upon it, some asserting that it was almost totally destroyed, burning in a fierce blaze. But the Memphis Avalanche says differently:

"The Nicholson pavement, so extensively in use in Chicago, emerges from the fire virtually intact, proving, by the most severe test, its durable qualities. It still stands in good order throughout all its long stretches, excepting in a few places, mostly on the North Side, where it has been seriously injured (not, by any means, destroyed) by the showers of brands and cinders and avalanches of red-hot bricks which fell upon it. It is doubtful, indeed, whether any stone pavement would have stood the siege better. The heaviest of stone sidewalks have, for the most part, yielded to the calcining process, and are total ruins. In view of the fact, that Memphis, like Chicago, is paved with the Nicholson, this assurance of its worth is most gratifying."

Georgia Baptist Orphans' Home.

Editors Constitution: The undersigned committee appointed for the purpose of selecting a suitable location for the Georgia Baptist Orphans' Home, and to report to the Board of Trustees for ratification, respectfully ask all persons desiring to donate locations or building sites, either in town, city or county near railroads, to inform us on or before the first of December next, so that we may visit those places deemed eligible.

We hope that the money subscriptions will continue through our agent, Rev. R. W. Fuller, or our Treasurer, J. H. James.

Will the press of Georgia feeling an interest in this matter give it a few insertions? Address the undersigned at Atlanta, Georgia.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Communicated.

Editors Constitution: The friends of Gen. G. F. Wright, of Albany, believing him to be a suitable man for the position, will urge his election to the United States Senate. An able lawyer and gallant soldier, Georgia could not trust her cause in safer hands.

SOUTHWEST GEORGIA.

October 24, 1871.

A Groundswell.

The suggestion of the name of John H. James for Mayor is meeting with the approval of the masses. There is a perfect groundswell in his favor. He is not a politician by occupation or profession, but one of the people. The office is seeking the man. The people believe that John H. James is honest, capable, and efficient, and will discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and ability. The hard-working mechanics know that they can trust in him as a friend longer than the election campaign. All classes are rallying to his support, with great unanimity.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

United States Senator.

Editors Constitution: Not conceding that any citizen has claims on the Legislature or people of the State, but insisting that the people have stronger claims on some than others, I propose to mention one man for the office of United States Senator, and trust, by the mention of him, no one will consider me as in any way underrating any other man who may be mentioned for the same position.

Nature endowed Hiram Warner with a strong intellect, which long experience and application have served to cultivate well. With a firmness that yields not to ordinary opposition, and with an integrity that evil times have failed to corrupt, Georgia has conferred on him many honors, which have brought him under strong obligations, as a patriot and philanthropist, to serve her when she needs his services. That time is now, for he is in a condition to serve her without obstruction, and with great public benefit.

He is an old man that will not be moved by personal aspiration or ambition. He is not only a life-long Democrat, but the Constitution is and ever has been the idol of his affections and the guide of his intellect.

The period of time at which we have arrived is extraordinary in the development of corruption, official weakness and infidelity, and of changes in public men, that cannot be accounted for by any ordinary method of charitable logic. And it will be highly becoming to look well to the material of which men are made before we place them in power.

We can't afford to elect a Senator to gratify any friend, or to reward any man for past services. It is with us a time of sore trial, and we must elect a man who can, both as to legal qualification and ability, serve us, and whose character is a guaranty that neither hope or fear will move him from the narrow path of official duty.

IRON-RIBBED DEMOCRAT.

The Mayoralty.

Atlanta is now one of the first cities in the State, second only to one in point of wealth. The office therefore of Mayor is one of the greatest importance. To fill the office of Chief Magistrate of such a city requires experience, integrity and capacity of the first order. It is, to a very considerable extent, a judicial office, and its incumbent should be well versed in the science of municipal law. The Mayor of such a city should be qualified to preside over a court and administer justice according to the laws of the land. Colonel Luther J. Glenn is a man who fills the bill. In addition to being one of the best lawyers in the State, he is a man of enlarged experience, having heretofore filled the office to the satisfaction of the people. In point of merit, he has no superior. He has been identified with the city from its organization up to the present time. He is brave, noble and generous, and his honor and integrity are incorruptible. He has served with honor and distinction in the field, has borne his breast to the storm of battle in defense of his native State, and bears honorable wounds received in the discharge of his duty, at a time that tried men's souls.

Such a man would do honor to the high office of Mayor of the city of Atlanta. He is capable of representing her dignity and maintaining her rights in any capacity, and on all occasions. Being an urbane, polished gentleman and a fluent public speaker, our citizens would never have cause to blush for their chief municipal magistrate on such occasions as frequently require him to welcome distinguished guests, or publicly to officiate on like occasions.

Besides, he is a firm, uncompromising Democrat—none of your wishy-washy sort. Yet, he is a man of honor and unswerving integrity, and in the administration of his office, these qualities will insure a strict adherence to law and justice, and their faithful enforcement between man and man, without political bias or prejudice. Let the people, that is, all true Democrats, then, rally on Friday, the 27th instant, to the precincts and cast their ballots for the nomination of Luther J. Glenn.

A DEMOCRAT.

Dots from the Macon State Fair.

[Special Correspondence of The Constitution.]

MACON, October 23, 1871.

Saturday and even Sunday were days of bustle and preparation at the Fair Grounds, and this A. M. at 8 o'clock, the huge gates of Central City Park were thrown open to the visiting thousands. The city even now presents a bee hive appearance. Already the hotels are jammed, and many have been compelled to seek quarters at private houses.

We were pleased to meet many Gate City faces upon the arrival of the down train to-day—most of whom are exhibitors—showing the zeal and interest Atlantians manifest in the park, I will only say you have a treat in store. The main enclosure is truly beautiful, abounding in luxurious shade from grand old oaks and pines, furnished alone by the kind hand of nature.

The palatial galleries are most tastefully arranged and in convenient proximity to each other, present, looking through the symetrical forest, an appearance of ("truly) rural" grandeur. As we near these from the grand entrance, we are attracted by the crowning spot of loveliness, and that grass carpet of one mile circle comes plainly into view. If the ingenuity and energy which has characterized the indomitable Huff in all of his undertakings, had been expended there he would have failed in accomplishing more for the race course than a single freak of that hackneyed dame has done.

Among the distinguished arrivals is Edward Payson Weston. He gave us a round this afternoon, coming in several seconds ahead of time. In a conversation with him yesterday, we gathered a few items concerning him, which may be of interest to some, for I confess, that I listened with much pleasure to his remarks on his extraordinary powers of endurance.

Before entering upon a "long walk" he abstains from smoking four weeks previous to the time, during which he eats nothing salt; no meats or parsnips; says he never remembered being tired. His manners are polished and easy in his private room, with a ceaseless flow of spirits and humor; is thirty-two years of age, though much younger in appearance.

A most timely rain fell this morning, settling the dust and causing general rejoicing. Among the Atlanta merchants who are making displays of their goods, we notice the "live jeweler" man, who has kept a sharp watch for fair honors of late. Those "live" machine men, Miller, (Howe,) Smillie, (Singer,) Wid,) (Wheeler & Wilson,) are all here. Professor Eastman is exhibiting fancy specimens in his line. Dr. J. S. Lawton, the energetic Executive Committeeman and General Superintendent, has promised us a fine programme for to-morrow, an account of which I may furnish if this meets with editorial sanction

E. S. K.

Special Correspondent of The Constitution.

All About the Macon Fair, and Any Other Man.

MACON, GA., October 23, 1871.

Editors Constitution: Aware of the constant pressure upon the columns of THE CONSTITUTION, I shall have to confine myself to general notes.

THE WEATHER.

Had the weather been ordered expressly by Mayor Huff, for the Fair week, it could hardly have better suited for the introductory exercises of the Fair, than it was. Since the recent showers inanimate nature has emerged from the baptism as fresh as Aphrodite from the ocean.

MAYOR HUFF.

Everywhere can be seen the efficient hand of the above named gentleman. By his skill, tact and talent, all has been enlarged, beautified and organized into a harmonious system out of a chaos of resources. And to-day the Georgia State Fair stands forth in completed proportions, the pride of all.

THE GROUNDS.

The extent and appointment of the Fair Grounds have already been described to your readers. A day or two of the Fair has passed; the turf is slightly soiled, and the purity and newness of the grounds are wearing off since the main body of the army of occupation has moved in and taken possession; still, about the grounds there is many a spot where naids might sport or fairies float through the measures of their mystic dance to the music of Pan's delicious pipe.

MUSIC.

The United States Band that is on the grounds richly merit a notice. Its selections of pieces are rendered in a style superior to anything I have heard in a long time. Mayor Huff has evinced sound judgment and unimpeachable taste in securing this all-important portion of the entertainment.

THE CROWD.

I could not count the number present. Everywhere, men, women and children could be seen. At the Amphitheater, from the ground to the summit, flashed one universal loveliness, arrayed in colors most becoming. A parterre of rare exotics was that semi-circle where boquets from Macon, Atlanta, yea, all parts of Georgia, could be seen, lacking not in freshness the glow of the rose, nor in taste of attire the purity of the lily. In fact the crowd is a large and intelligent one.

CATTLE.

The exhibition of cattle is good. I cannot enter into particulars in regard to this department. There were entries of beef cattle from which a Baron's roast could be cut. There I gazed upon dark red Devon cattle, famed for quality of lacteal yield; and then the gazelle-like Alderney, than whose milk none is richer in color or sweeter to the taste.

HORSES.

"A horse, a horse, my kingdom for a horse!" was the cry of Richard. All ages echo this sentiment to this day, and it grows with the lapse of time; and this equine motto is enthusiastically indorsed at the Fair.

Horse flesh, rapid horse flesh, has unquestionably a powerful charm for all sexes and ages. There are many and valuable horses here—some worthy of the pencil of Rosa Bonheur.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

Hundreds of people are strolling through forests of agricultural implements and machinery. Engines are whirling away; threshing machines thundering around, reducing the size of imaginary stacks of wheat, oats, etc., and filling innumerable ideal sacks with any quantity of golden grain.

HOGS.

Quite a number are on exhibition. Their pens have their quota of visitors, and ladies glide through the corridors of the piggery, surveying the swinish delegation with apparent delight.

SUCCESS.

But I must stop and write you at another time. My impartial verdict is that the Fair is a great success. The programme has been filled to the letter. I as yet can find no fault with either the matter or manner of the Fair. May nothing occur to mar the pleasures of the week, and may this annual carnival leave behind a host of pleasant memories, and not a single pang of disappointment or regret.

YOU KNOW WHO.

[No, we don't. We are morally sure that it isn't H.—for it is just a "leetle" too flowery; nor Acton, because it isn't quite poetical enough. The name must accompany the next letter.—EDS. CONS.]

General Hampton's Letter—The Policy of Abstention.

We have been favored with an extract from a letter addressed from Minneapolis, Minnesota, to a prominent physician of this city. The writer is a person of intelligence and influence. As he gives us General Hampton's letter from a Northern stand-point, we believe it will be read with interest by the public, and receive due consideration from our friend, General Hampton, whose views it so considerately criticises. We now present the extract referred to, and take occasion to invite from General Hampton such a reply as his disinterested patriotism and his good judgment may suggest:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 13, 1871.

I think you know Gen. Wade Hampton well. I am sorry that I do not, except his public and most enviable fame. If you do know him well, I want you to present me to him, as you know me to be as true a Southerner as even General H. himself. Present me in all respect and honor, and tell him that his letter of the 9th September last, addressed to Gen. D. H. Hill, is published in Northern papers, and is the subject of much comment with Democrats and Republicans—with the former regretfully, and with the latter exultingly, as being of the "unrepentant rebel" sort—more "Southern Confederacy," etc.; all sorts of deviltry, as usual, in these puritanical atmospheres. I understand the General, and so do many honest, faithful, national Democrats—all of them respecting, and not for an instant doubting his perfect sincerity. But it is certainly an unfortunate publication, because it is misconstrued. Comment is made upon his expressions, viz: He speaks of "the policy to be pursued by the Southern States in the next National Democratic Convention." "I concur fully in the views you have expressed as to the impropriety of the South taking any part in the approaching convention"—his frequent use of the word "we" as meaning the South, etc. You read the letter critically with the view and desire to find fault with it, as all the Republicans do, and you will see how open it is to objections in the feelings of enemies, and you know how eagerly they hasten to make use of them. The General's the North now. I know of what I write.

It is the heart-felt wish of the national party in the North that their friends (the Democrats of the South) should unite with them in the convention; that they should be there to sustain them. All know that—if Grant's markets do not prevent—the South will vote a unit for the national Democratic nominee, and there is abundant reason to fear that if the South should not attend and act in the convention, that no proper conservative national man would accept the nomination. What high-toned, just, liberal, fit candidate would accept a nomination of a disjointed constituency of a half of a convention? Oh no. I pray you do not countenance such a plan; it is all wrong. God knows "the South" has suffered enough; that disunion has been enforced long enough. Let not the Democrats of the Southern States contribute, by any act of theirs to this disunion. Let them come up, accepting the situation, however right or wrong, in the most friendly, co-operative spirit possible, and meet the Democrats of the Northern States, who, I know, you know, all must know, are tired, weary, worn out in this long-imposed, informal disseverance. I am sure of the sentiment of the Democrats in the North. I wish you could have heard an old gentleman from Maine, who sat by me just now; it would have gladdened the heart of General Hampton, or any patriot; you would have thought that you were carried back to the days of Jefferson and Webster, and of Clay and Calhoun!

My dear friend, let us heal the breach; let all National Democrats unite; let us nominate a right and fit candidate, and we shall win; and, as General Hampton says, preserve "the existence of the Southern States." If Gen. Hampton could know me, my hearty sympathy with him and his cherished "South," so nobly defended by himself, as I hope you can and will explain me to him, he will not think these honest words amiss.

IMPURE BREATH.

AMONG all the disagreeable consequences that follow fast the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most unpleasant and mortifying to its possessor, as it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society. How often its possessor experiences a distant coldness shown even from the best of friends, or perhaps the one most fondly cherished, from this source. You are ignorant of the cause yourself, the subject is so delicate—your most intimate friend will not mention it. Why not remove this one great barrier to your health, beauty and happiness, at once, by using that justly popular dentifrice, fragrant Sozodont, the most convenient, pleasant and efficacious gem for the toilet the world has ever produced.

Anniversary.—Atlanta Lodge Good Templars, will celebrate its Fourth Anniversary at the Skating Rink, next Tuesday night.

Special Notice.—The Managers appointed by the Third Ward Democratic Club for the nomination will meet at the residence of D. A. Beattie, on Fair street, to-night, to perfect arrangements.

Fire.—Several wooden shanties on Decatur street, just above McBride & Smith's, were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss is small. Fire supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

John T. Hagan.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement in Local and Business column of the goods offered for sale by John T. Hagan, the oil man. He is a live, go-ahead man and has built up a large trade.

Broad Street Bridge.—Through the public spirit of Charles Herbst, Broad Street Bridge has been partially repaired. Will not our City Fathers, regnant and expectant, look into the condition of this bridge.

Withdrawn.—It will be seen by the communication of Alderman McLendon, that he declines to run for re-election. He therefore withdraws his name from the nomination, in favor of Judge Hammock and Dr. Roach.

Base Ball.—The Mohawk and the Decore Clubs will play a match next Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, at the Barracks. We invite all to come and witness a lively game. J. O. Collier, Captain.

Liberal Proposition.—Two young gentlemen in this city own considerable real estate in the rising town of Duluth. We learn that they propose to give a town lot to every young lady who will settle there, and to share the best lot with the handsomest one.

Heavy Verdict.—In Fulton Superior Court yesterday the jury in the case of W. R. Phillips vs. William Soloman, security of J. J. Morrison, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $5,000. Morrison was discharged as a bankrupt. The security had to pay the debt.

Come Out.—Let every Democrat come out tomorrow to the nominating conventions in each Ward, and vote for the men of their choice for Mayor and Aldermen. A man has no right to absent himself and then bolt the nominee because his favorite was not nominated.

Commuted.—We learn that Governor Bullock has commuted the sentence of C. C. Reese from hanging to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for life. Reese was convicted for the killing of Edwards in Taliaferro county, and sentenced to be hung tomorrow.

Destroyed.—The lithographic plate for the diplomas for the Atlanta Agricultural and Industrial Association were destroyed during the fire in Chicago. In consequence of this loss, the delivery of the diplomas will be necessarily delayed for about two weeks.

Atlantic and Great Western Canal. Major McCalla, of the United States Engineer Corps, is in the city, and stopping at the Cannon House. He is here for the purpose of organizing and engineer corps to survey the route of the Atlantic an Great Western Canal. Here is a fine opportunity for our young men who are acquainted with civil engineering

Meeting of Candidates.—At the request of a large number of candidates a meeting of all the Democratic candidates for Mayor and Aldermen is called to meet at the City Hall to-night at 7:30 P. M., to consult together upon matters connected with the campaign.

Every Democrat who expects to run in the nomination is earnestly requested to be present.

Accident.—On Tuesday night a negro boy named Hardy Strickland, at Stone Mountain, had a leg crushed so badly by the cars as to require amputation below the knee. He was sitting on an open car on the sideling at Stone Mountain when the accommodation train was backing on it to remain for the night. Hardy went to jump off, when a nail caught his pants and caused him to fall on the track under the car wheels. Dr. John L. Hamilton amputated the leg soon after in a skillful manner.

Mr. Local: The notice in your paper, signed "Many Voters," asking me to allow my name to be used for re-election as Alderman for the 2d Ward, is entitled to a notice from me. Whilst I am grateful for this complimentary notice of myself, I beg leave to say that I am not and will not be a candidate. I therefore cheerfully recommend to my friends Dr. E. J. Roach and Judge C. C. Hammock for that position.

N. A. McLendon.

Captain John L. Johnson, Deputy Marshal, and Lieutenant J. Sid Holland, returned yesterday from St. Louis.

We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting with Colonel George T. Barnes, of Augusta. He is growing more youthful and robust every day, and is as strong in the Democratic faith as when he led the Democratic hosts to triumphant success over all opposition. His blade is still keen and bright.

Important Decision.—In the case of A. C. Van Epps vs. The City of Atlanta for damages in Fulton Superior Court, the counsel for the defendant objected to the jury on the ground that they were citizens of Atlanta and interested parties in the suit. Judge Hopkins decided the objection to be valid, and as he (Judge Hopkins) was a citizen of Atlanta, likewise interested, he could not preside in the case. Therefore no cases for damages against the city will likely be tried for the present.

Fifth Ward Democratic Club.—The Fifth Ward Democratic Club met last night at Bell Hall. The Club was called to order by R. C. Mitchell, President.

On motion the action of the Central Executive Committee was ratified.

On motion the President was authorized to appoint managers and clerks for the nomination on the 27th.

The President appointed C. A. Pitts, A. O. N. Gay and Charles Dean, as managers, and Henry W. Wooding, J. W. Butler and Dr. W. C. Moore as clerks.

President Biggers and Foreman Stidman of Tallulah Fire Company, tendered the use of the lower story of their engine house for the holding of the nomination, which was accepted.

Captain W. T. Newman, Colonel L. J. Glenn, Major J. D. Morgan, Dr. Joel Branham, and M. J. Ivy addressed the meeting in response to calls.

On motion, the thanks of the Club were tendered to Professor A. R. Eastman for the use of his chairs.

The meeting then adjourned.

Democratic Club Fourth Ward.—Quite a number of the members of the club met last night at the Medical College, E. P. Howell, President of the club, in the chair.

The club ratified the action of the Central Committee.

The Willingham Building was agreed upon as the place for holding the election, in the store of Mr. Mecasslin.

The following gentlemen were appointed by the President Managers of the Election: Messrs. Daniel Pittman, M. W. Raspberry and James Mann.

The following gentlemen were appointed Clerks: Messrs. Bud Elyea, J. F. Edwards, and Dr. Judson.

The names of the three candidates were announced for Aldermen.

W. T. Newman, Esq., being present was also called upon, and made a few remarks. Speeches were also made by Captain Whit Anderson and M. A. Bell, Esq. On motion, the Club adjourned to meet next Friday night week.

The Hartford Insurance Company.—It is with pleasure that we call attention to the statement of this sterling old Company. Incorporated sixty-one years ago, it seemed by its age, to command our veneration and respect. But added to age, it has had trial after trial, out of each of which it has come triumphant. Recently a terrible calamity has befallen it, as well as others. It was like the man walking the street, struck by lightning. But we are glad to say, that although, stunned by this stroke of lightning, the good old Hartford stands yet a beacon light for safety to all desiring reliable insurance and perfect security.

The Hartford is one of the oldest companies in America, and its stock commands a higher price than many others. We gladly commend it to our friends.

We need only add that it is represented in Atlanta by General John C. Whitner as local agent. Its business here has been larger, and we congratulate our friends that their interest have been in so safe hands. Our community is too well acquainted with General Whitner to require any recommendation from us. He has been tried, and found in every respect worthy and well qualified.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Wm. J. Whaling, General Agent for the South, has taken up his permanent abode in Atlanta. He is a veteran in insurance, and a man of unblemished character. From him we learn, having come direct from the Chicago fire, that the Hartford stands recta in curia.

"ACCEPT THE SITUATION."

If Disappointment dogs your steps
It's hard to help repining,
But small philosophy it shows
To go forever whining.
Having done all that man can do
To make or win occasion,
Come! just without too much concern,
"Accept the situation."

Whether from Pleasure's jaunting car
You happen to be tilted,
Or whether by a handsome girl
You happen to be jilted,
Don't dedicate your time and lungs
To useless objurgation,
But, picking up your limbs and—heart,
"Accept the situation."

Suppose the motive of your act
Has been a brave and true one,
That's just the reason why some folks
Will coin a false and new one,
And shrug a dubious shrug, and drop
The sly insinuation—
But trusting Right, and waiting Light,
"Accept the situation."

The world is full of ups and downs,
And many curious turnings,
And some big men are only clowns,
For all your weak heart-burnings.
Better the lowly, if it's true,
Than the loftiest pinchback station,
The True's a rock can stand a shock;
"Accept the situation."

Life's train is whirling past, old boy;
In what class do you journey?
First, second, third? the speed's the same;
If third, first needn't spurn ye,
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust!
Behold the final station!
Not then we may, but then we must
"Accept the situation."

☞ There is in the following brief poem a charming picture of domestic life, heightened by an allusion to a well known incident in the life of Washington:

"Dear father, look up,
Restrain the hiccup,
And tell me what aileth ma's forehead?
It's all black and blue,
To cause a confusion so horrid?"

"Your mother, Jane Ann
A newspaper man
Admired, till I warned her she'd catch it;
Like Washington, I
Cannot tell a lie—
I did it with my little hatchet."

What was Destroyed.

We have refrained publishing any map of the burnt district. No map can impart the faintest conception of the magnitude of the disaster which has overtaken the city. On the consumed portion was concentrated the great bulk of the wealth of the city. It was also the most densely populated part. The unconsumed part consists chiefly of private residences, multitudes of them cheap wooden structures. A map of the city plat exhibits a vast area untouched by fire; but it does not convey the information that not less than eighteen square miles of this space is open prarie, on which scarcely a habitation has yet been erected. It was annexed from the adjoining townships to accommodate the future growth of the city and for park purposes. We think it would be safe to estimate that two-thirds of the capital invested in buildings in the entire city perished on that dreadful Monday.—Chicago Tribune.

☞ The Post Office Department furnishes support to a great number of carpet-baggers in the South who are too unpopular to get elected to any State office which will save them the trouble of earning an honest living. The post routes for the whole of Southern Georgia are let to one man, who sub-lets them to other parties, and make a large annual income without doing any of the work. In some cases these contracts are sub-let several times, each of the middlemen receiving a nice profit. This is the rule throughout the South, and thus many ardent friends of Grant's administration are snugly provided for at the public expense. If men, who have no political influence, undertake to compete for the work at lower prices, their proposals can be easily disposed of by calling them straw bids, and refusing to consider them.—New York Sun.

☞ The custom-house Radical faction in New Orleans have in view the establishment of a newspaper, to be called the National Republican. In order to get the enterprise started, a circular has been issued to Collector Casey's employees advising them of the advantage of taking one or more shares in the new paper; shares $25 apiece. As the salary of most of these poor wretches does not amount to more than $55 per month, they have presented to them the cheerful alternative of making this sacrifice for "the party," or of losing their situations.—Republican Banner.

☞ The whole matter of the restoration of the business property of the city may be stated in a nutshell; Chicago was made by its river—narrow, muddy and odoriferous as it was—just as London was made by the Thames. So Chicago must be restored, with the advantage of that experience which teaches what cities of business should hug this artery and what may be safely kept at a distance from it.—Chicago Times.

☞ New York is excited upon the subject of rags. Several vessels have lately arrived from European ports with this merchandise as part of their cargoes, and it is suspected that, in some instances, cholera and other infectious diseases lurk in the unsavory bales. The consignees protested against the detention of their goods at Quarantine, but the health authorities have very properly decided that no cargoes of rags from countries where cholera prevails shall be landed without disinfection.—Patriot.

☞ Mark Twain produces one of the most striking cases of meanness on record. He says he knows of an incorporated society which hired a man to blast rock; and he was punching powder in it with a crowbar, when a premature explosion followed, sending the man and crowbar out of sight. Both came down all right and the man went to work promptly; but though he was gone only fifteen minutes, the company "docked him for lost time."

☞ An indignant "barrister" writes to the London Times that, in spite of the oratorical flourish of Curran about the shackles falling from the slave the moment he touches British soil, etc., the slave traffic between Tripoli and Constantinople, through the intermediate port of Malta still goes on. The "Barrister" saw five or six young female slaves at Malta on their way to Constantinople as a present to a Pasha.

☞ Mr. Webb, the great shipbuilder of New York, gives it as his opinion, that, unless Congress does something at the next session to aid steam navigation, every American line will give way to a British line within one year. What that something is, Mr. Webb fails to state. A Radical Congress broke down our shipping interests by selfish, partial legislation, and it is not likely they will act in a different manner at the coming session of Congress.

☞ The New York Sun (Radical) says: "The loss of Texas to the Republicans, in spite of the Ku-Klux act of Congress, the practical proclamation of martial law, and the thorough-going usurpations of Governor Davis in behalf of Grant's administration proves that all the Southern States, with perhaps one or two exceptions, will vote against Gen. Grant should he be the Presidential candidate in 1872." That is the reason he is declaring martial law. He wants to keep them from voting.

The Spirit that Wins.—The plucky Chicago man who ordered a lot of sugars and syrups in New York just after the fire, and promised to have his store rebuilt by the time the goods arrived, has kept his word. On Thursday he telegraphed to his friends there: "We enter a new store to-morrow, made since the fire, and resume payment in full and at maturity." Such men are the living reasons why we pin faith on Chicago.—Index.

☞ Nebraska, the youngest of our States, has a University located at Lincoln, her capital, in which she fondly hopes to rival the great success of her elder sister Michigan. Its endowment (in lands) will very soon be equal to one million dollars.—Republican Banner.

☞ The editor who wrote his editorials with chalk on the soles of his shoes, and went barefooted while the printers set up the copy, has purchased a ream of second-hand envelopes, and engaged a girl to turn them inside out.—Exchange.

☞ President Thiers, who does not know English very well, keeps posted upon the journalistic opinions of the day by employing two clerks, who translate every morning to him the most important articles in the English, German and Italian papers.

☞ M. Blanc, formerly lessee of the gaming establishment at Hamburg, and afterwards at Monaco, recently died at the latter place, leaving a fortune of $3,000,000 francs.

CHEROKEE PILLS NO. 2,
For the Removal of Obstructions and the Insurance of Regularity in the Recurrence of Monthly Periods.

THESE PILLS are an unfailing Female Regulator, intended for special cases; those obstinate ones where milder and cheaper medicines fail.

They are composed of the most active and powerful principles of plants, roots and berries, so highly concentrated that each pill contains more medical strength than a whole box or bottle of ordinary dollar medicine in the market. Although powerful, yet so mild and pleasant in their operation, that the most feeble can take them with perfect safety.

☞ They may be safely used at any age, and at any period, except during the First Three Months, during which the unfailing nature of their effects would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

☞ All letters seeking information or advice will be promptly, freely and discreetly answered.

☞ Each box contains about 100 pills, and wrapped in white paper printed in deep red letters, with full and explicit directions enclosed.

☞ Sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of price, $5, per box.

☞ The Cherokee Pills No. 2 are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of this; those which they can purchase at a cheap price and make more money. As you value your health do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these $5 pills, and take no other. If the Druggist will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter and we will send them to you by mail, free of postage, securely sealed from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms, and write post office, county, State and name of writer, and enclose postage stamp for reply.

☞ We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet, entitled "MAN AND WOMAN AS INVALIDS," to every reader of this paper. Address as follows:

LIVER DISEASE and Indigestion prevail to a greater extent than probably any other malady, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. It is the most simple and easily regulated Machine now in use.

The shuttle gives an even tension from the full to the empty bobbin.

Makes the most durable, elastic and smooth stitch. Stitching the softest muslin without drawing it into the feed, and from that to heavy cloth or leather without changing the tension, making it capable of a greater range of work than any other machine made.

We use the straight needle, and it will do more and finer work than the curved needles.

The work moves from you instead of sideways, which is much easier to manage.

For speed and ease of operation it is unequaled.

Our machinery is all protected from dust.

Our corder, tucker, gatherer, quilter, trimmer, fringer, binder, hemmer, braider, feller and embroidery attachment are simple and easily used.

We have the best of silks of our own manufacture at wholesale and retail, of all colors and numbers.

We will place the Singer in your family for a trial with any machine you may wish to try with it.

The sales of our New Family Sewing Machine is steadily increasing, showing its popularity.

The new No. 1 Machine for Tailors and Bootmakers is the best in the market.

Examine before purchasing.
